

Begin: take this time to hear how everyone is doing, and get settled in.

- What is something to celebrate this week?
 - IceBreaker: When something goes wrong, who do you call first?
 - What does that say about who you trust?

Listen: This is for reflection on Sunday's Sermon and thoughts from the message.

- What stood out to you about this week's message?
 - Is there anything you are still thinking about or have questions about?

Discover: Take time to dig deeper into the passage/topic for this week.

- Read: Isaiah 36:1-10, 37:14-20, 33-38
 - "On what do you rest this trust of yours?" — Isaiah 36:4
Why is this the question underneath the whole chapter?
 - He then argues that no god has ever delivered a nation from Assyria (36:18-20). How does he try to put the Lord in the same category as every other god?
 - Hezekiah receives the threatening letter and spreads it out "before the Lord" (37:14). What does this simple act show about where trust begins?
 - Hezekiah prays that all kingdoms "may know that you alone are the Lord" (37:20). What is he asking for beyond his own rescue?

Apply: Take time to apply these Biblical Truths to your life.

- What is the Assyrian question, "What are you trusting in?", asking of you right now?
- What have you trusted in for security that has left you hurt or empty?
- Hezekiah took the letter to the temple instead of carrying the worry alone. What would it look like to spread your biggest worry out before God this week?
- Hezekiah prayed for God's glory, not just his own relief. How does that change the way you pray in a crisis?
- MY ONE THING — What is your 1 takeaway from this study, and how will it impact your upcoming week?

Pray: Feel free to pray in a way that best fits your group. Take time each week to pray with and for each other.

Notes: Space for you notes from your time together.

"SO NOW, O LORD OUR GOD, SAVE US FROM HIS HAND,
THAT ALL THE KINGDOMS OF THE EARTH MAY KNOW
THAT YOU ALONE ARE THE LORD."
