Discover: Take time to dig deeper into the passage/topic for this week.

- Read: Micah 1:3-4; 6:6-8; 7:18-20
- In what way does Micah give us a balanced view of God?
- How do we remain hopeful in times of discipline?
- Apostasy means to abandon or renounce one's religious beliefs. In the Bible, it refers to one who has abandoned their faith through rebellion. What are some ways we can guard our hearts against the influence of apostasy in your own life?
- Read Micah 7:8-10 — What can we learn about confession from this text?

Apply: Take time to apply these Biblical Truths to your life.

- Are you hopeful for your future in Christ? Why/Why not?
- Micah understood that some of God's promises come after a long passing of time (Micah 7:7). What emotions does this waiting for God's promises bring up in you?
- How does God want us to respond when we are waiting for Him to answer our prayers?
- Micah wrote a book of hope in times of great spiritual despair. How do God's promises provide us with strength to remain faithful in our own lives?
- Share some of God's promises that bring hope in hard times.
- MY ONE THING — What is your 1 take-a-way from this study and How will it impact your upcoming week?

Pray: Feel free to pray in a way that best fits your group. Take time each week to pray with and for each other.

Notes: Space for you notes from your time together. Memory verse at the bottom for your week.

HE HAS TOLD YOU, O MAN, WHAT IS GOOD; AND WHAT DOES THE LORD
REQUIRE OF YOU BUT TO DO JUSTICE, TO LOVE KINDNESS, AND TO WALK HUMBLY WITH YOUR GOD
