Sunday, February 25, 2024

Begin: Take this time to hear how everyone is doing, and get settled.

- What is something to celebrate from this past week?
- IceBreaker: What are you a fan of unapologetically?
 - Would those who are close to you already know this? How?

Listen: Reflections on Sunday's Sermon and thoughts from the message

- What stood out to you about this week's message?
- Is there anything you still are thinking about or have questions about?

Discover: Take time to dig deeper into the passage/topic for this week.

- Read: 1 John 3:11- 24
 - Why should we not be surprised that the world hates Christians?
 - Does this mean that we never fight for justice?
 - How does our willingness to love reveal what is going on in our hearts?
 - In what sense are murder and hatred the same thing? How are they similar and different before God?
 - Why should love for others give us assurance of salvation? Isn't love a natural feeling?

Apply: Take time to apply these Biblical Truths to your own life

- How does Jesus' example show us how to love?
- How far are you willing to go to show to others the love that Jesus showed you?
- Why must we keep John's doctrinal test and his moral test together? What happens if we relax on one or the other?

My One Thing — What is your 1 takeaway from this study and how will it impact your upcoming week?

Pray: Feel free to pray in a way that best fits your group. Take time each week to pray with and for each other.

Notes: Space for your notes from your time together. Added Memory verse at the bottom to keep these truths in your mind.

By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.
