

Begin: take this time to hear how everyone is doing, and get settled in.

- What is something to celebrate this week?
 - IceBreaker: Looking back over the past few months, what's one lesson or experience that has changed the way you think or live?
-

Listen: This is for reflection on Sunday's Sermon and thoughts from the message.

- What stood out to you about this week's message?
 - Is there anything you are still thinking about or have questions about?
-

Discover: Take time to dig deeper into the passage/topic for this week.

• Read: Hebrews 13:1-25

- What practical instructions does the author give in verses 1–6 about how believers should treat others and trust God?
- According to verses 7–9, why is it important to remember faithful spiritual leaders while remaining grounded in the unchanging truth of Christ?
- How does verse 8 serve as an anchor for the entire chapter—and really for the whole book of Hebrews?
- What does the author teach about worship and sacrifice in verses 15–16? How are believers called to offer sacrifices today?
- As you read the closing verses (17–25), what do they reveal about Christian community, leadership, prayer, and God's ongoing work in His people?

Apply: Take time to apply these Biblical Truths to your life.

- Which instruction in Hebrews 13 challenges you the most right now, and why?
- Verse 8 reminds us that Jesus never changes. How does His unchanging character give you confidence in a world that is constantly changing?
- What is one practical way you can offer a "sacrifice of praise" or "do good and share with others" this week?
- As you look back over the book of Hebrews, what truth about Jesus has most strengthened your faith, and how has it changed the way you live?
- Looking back at the "True and Better" series, where have you seen Jesus become "better" than something you were previously trusting? What is one specific way you want to continue living differently because of what you've learned?

Pray: Feel free to pray in a way that best fits your group. Take time each week to pray with and for each other.

Notes: Space for you notes from your time together.

"JESUS CHRIST IS THE SAME YESTERDAY AND TODAY AND FOREVER."

HEBREWS 13:8

